This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

With Compliments of the Trustees of Arlington Public Library.

BY-LAWS

OF THE

ARLINGTON PUBLIC LIBRARY.

ARTICLE 1. — The Trustees shall meet annually at the Library Room, on the second Monday in March, to choose a Chairman and Secretary, also to transact any other business that may legally come before them. They shall hold stated meetings on the second Monday of every month.

ART. 2. — The Secretary shall keep a fair record of all the proceedings of the Trustees, and shall notify the Trustees of the time of holding their meetings.

ART. 3. — The Trustees shall appoint a Librarian, shall have all books in the Library kept in repair, shall make all purchases of books, shall pass upon all bills against the Library, and shall examine the books annually, and make a report of their condition to the town.

ART 4. — The Librarian shall keep a full and accurate catalogue, open to inspection, of all books belonging to the Library, shall deliver books to such persons as are entitled to use them, shall keep a record of the time of delivering and returning each book, shall report to the Trustees all injuries done to books, shall collect all fines, and pay the same to the Town Treasurer before the first day of January in each year.

ART. 5. — The use of the Library and Reading Room shall be free to all residents of the town, of suitable age; but any person may be temporarily forbidden such use, for carelessness or misconduct.

ART. 6. — Any person temporarily living in town may use the Library on the same conditions as residents, provided that before taking books he shall furnish a satisfactory guaranty, or deposit with the Librarian the sum of three dollars.

ART. 7. — Except as below provided, the Library shall be open every Wednesday and Saturday, from three to eight, P.M., and on other days from three to six, P.M. The Reading Room shall be open during Library hours, and from seven to nine o'clock every evening. The Library and Reading Room shall be closed on Sundays, legal holidays, and during August on days other than Wednesday and Saturday.

ART. 8. — Any person who has a right to use the Library may take one volume, and retain it two weeks. Any book may be renewed once to the same person, but not more than once, until it has been returned to the Library, and has remained there one full Library day. All books shall be returned to the Library for the annual examination in July.

ART. 9. — If any person shall lose, deface, or injure a volume, he shall replace the same, or pay for it. A fine of two cents shall be collected for every day a book is retained beyond the specified time. If any person shall refuse or neglect to pay any sum due for the detention, loss, or injury of any book, his right to take books from the Library shall be suspended until the same is paid.

PREFATORY NOTE.

A SIMPLE and concise dictionary catalogue, with titles and names of authors arranged in alphabetical order, is all that is attempted here. For a more complete index to the contents of the Library, readers are referred to our elaborate CARD CATALOGUE, which is open to inspection during Library hours.

EXPLANATIONS.

An asterisk (*) marks the titles of juvenile books.

A single dash (—) implies the repetition of the preceding heading; a subsequent dash (-), the repetition of a subordinate heading.

The pseudonym of an author is printed in Italics, within brackets, following the author's name; a previous or maiden name is inclosed in parenthesis. E. g.: Mary A. Cross (Lewes) [George Eliot]; Dinah Maria (Mulock) Craik.

To economize space, the following abbreviations are used for English names of authors or their foreign equivalents:

A: Augustus.	F: Frederick.	K: Karl.	P: Peter.
B: Benjamin.	G: George.	L: Lewis or Louis.	R: Richard.
C: Charles.	H: Henry.	M: Matthew.	S: Samuel.
D: David.	I: Isaac.	N: Nicholas.	T: Thomas.
E: Edward.	J: John.	O: Otto.	W: William.

Under the names of authors, works are catalogued in the following order:

1. Works by an author.
2. Works by him and others.
3. Works edited by him.
4. Works translated by him.
5. Works about him.
